Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Kenneth W. Rumbaugh was born in 1952, is a 1970 High School graduate, attended three years of college at OSU taking business and finance courses, then went into the insurance business with his Father. Kenneth has been a self-employed businessman since 1974. In 1982, he received the C.E.B.A. - Certified Estate and Business Analyst designation and received certification from the National Executive Institute in Columbus, Ohio run by Donald J. Denton (now retired). To complete the program, Kenneth had to learn and apply the top 50 IRS code sections affecting business owners and learn various business strategies around those code sections. Kenneth went back to school one week each year to brush up and see what was new until the school closed in 1995. Since 1995, Kenneth has attended the Philip E. Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning by the University of Miami Law Department in Florida each January to learn and review similar information that affects business owners. The CEBA designation is really an attitude to serve his business owner clients first, a serve first attitude following IRS rules and regulations to protect and grow businesses and wealth in Tax Planning, Estate Planning, Asset Protection and various business structures.
